

Would you like to hear the Good News?

God still loves you. He never stopped loving you. He loved you so much that He sent His Son Jesus to bring you back. All you have to do is let Him bring you back. Will you pray with me?

“Lord Jesus... I want to stop trusting in myself...and what I can do...and start trusting in you...and what you have already done...when you died for me on the cross. I know that I am a sinner...and I am sorry for my sins. I ask you to forgive me...I believe you rose again...and I invite you to come and live inside of me. I want you to be my Savior and Lord...which means being #1 in my life. I want to repent and turn away...from everything you and the Bible call sin...and I totally commit myself...to obeying you...everyday, for the rest of my life. Lord Jesus baptize me in your precious Holy Spirit. Thank you Jesus.”

Now that you have made peace with God, He is ready for you to begin to grow in a personal relationship with Him.

Receiving More Of Jesus? “The Baptism in the Holy Spirit”

1. Did you know that God has a good gift for you – the Holy Spirit?
2. Would you like to ask God to receive the Holy Spirit – Luke 11:13?
3. Do you believe the Bible is the Word of God?
4. Have you heard of the Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit and that all are in agreement with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit? The Father is the One Who Promised – Acts 1:8. Jesus is the One Who Baptizes us in the Holy Spirit – Luke 3:16. The Holy Spirit is the One who gives us the utterance or the words and that this is the “initial sign” of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit – Acts 2:4.
5. Do you believe that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is speaking in tongues? – Acts 10:44-46, Acts 19:2-6
6. Would you like to know why the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is important?
  - a. Receive the ability or power of the Holy Spirit – Acts 1:8
  - b. Build up your most holy faith – Jude 1:20
  - c. Edify yourself (give yourself a spiritual battery charge) – 1 Cor. 14:4
  - d. Speak mysteries to God – 1 Corinthians 14:2
  - e. When you don’t know how to pray, the Holy Spirit will pray through you the perfect will of God. (When you pray in other tongues) – Romans 8:26-28
7. How is “Salvation” different than the “Baptism in the Holy Spirit?”
Answer: Jesus described the born again experience as a “fountain of water springing up into everlasting life – John 4:14. Salvation is to benefit the believer. When we are born again the Holy Spirit enters our spirit and assures us of eternal life with God. Jesus describes the Baptism in the Holy Spirit as “rivers of living water flowing out of the heart – John 7:38-39.” The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is to benefit those for whom we minister. The Baptism of the Holy Spirit provides us the power that flows out of our spirit to meet the needs of others.
8. The disciples were in the upper room on the Day of Pentecost and when they were in one accord in one place “they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance – Acts 2:4. Who spoke in other tongues?
9. Do you believe that words are made up of syllables?
10. Will you confess that you have received the Holy Spirit, before you speak in tongues?
11. By faith speak in syllables, and allow the Holy Spirit to have your tongue, to form syllables into a new language or tongue. The Holy Spirit will flow from your heart.
12. Pray for a minute in tongues and stop. The prophet controls his own spirit or his own tongue – 1 Corinthians 14:32.
13. Continue to pray in tongues and worship the Lord.

Learning to Walk

Danny Mendoza

Hearing His Voice

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony...

Revelation 12:11

Hello, my name is Danny Mendoza and I am from Celaya, Mexico. My mother had problems with me during her pregnancy and I was born prematurely. I had paralysis on both of my legs, and due to this, the doctors said I wouldn't be able to walk. My mother took me to several doctors for a second opinion. One suggested that I undergo a few surgeries, and go through an extensive exercise program at a rehabilitation clinic. While at the clinic, I regained movement in my both of my legs and used a walker to get around. I used the walker for a few years until I decided to try and walk on my own. This resulted in countless falls, but one day, I was able to walk without falling or grabbing onto something. I enjoyed a normal childhood despite of all this. My classmates in elementary school appreciated me. I also attended the catholic church to learn about God. I was a very happy child. But things changed once I entered middle school.

While I was in middle school, I was bullied and pushed aside by everyone. Nobody wanted to be my friend, and at times, I would have lunch by myself. This took an emotional toll on me. My grades went down and I stopped seeking God.

My time in high school was worse than my time in middle school. Nothing changed. I developed an unkind demeanor, and I rebelled against my parents. When I was a sophomore, I met a Christian girl who was in the same physical education class as I was. The girl would witness to me, but I didn't want to hear the Gospel. I knew God was there, but I just didn't understand why all of these bad things were happening to me. My oldest sister witnessed to me and suggested that I attend youth nights at a local church, but I refused. When I was a junior, I was expelled from high school due to something I did in retaliation for all the bullying that I received.

My older sister encouraged me to attend a youth retreat. I said yes at the last minute. While I was in that Retreat, I saw Jesus. The teens there accepted and loved me. I was blown away by the fellowship, worship, and powerful messages. I befriended a secretary who worked at the local elementary school. After weeks of talking to her, she invited me to her church and took me under her wing. This lady took every phone call, responded to every text message I sent her, and prayed for me and my family.

A local church extended a warm welcome. They didn't push me. They loved me. A couple there became my spiritual parents. On May 30th of 2010, I decided to tell the world that I had enough! I did so giving my life to Jesus. When the pastor received me during the time of invitation, he asked if I had prayed to receive Jesus. I responded by saying "I need him, I need him!" Accepting Jesus into my life has been the best decision I've ever made!

Accepting Jesus has been the best decision I've ever made!

I wanted to help Spanish youth, and dreamed of a Spanish mission at our local church. I started evangelizing on the streets of Commerce and enjoyed telling people about Jesus. Little did I know that God was preparing a Spanish pastor in Greenville to start an afternoon Spanish mission at our church. I was elated. The pastor encouraged me to work with the youth. God had answered another prayer request.

I had the opportunity to proclaim the Gospel in the Godmobile during the Bois D'Arc Bash and Texas State Fair. The Godmobile is a trailer that opens on three sides with flaps that said "Are You Going to Heaven? Two Question Test Reveals Answer." I shared my faith with dozens through this incredible outreach and led many in the prayer of Salvation.

While riding back to my hometown from a Godmobile outreach, I received the baptism of the Holy Spirit as evidence by speaking in tongues. The warmth of the Holy Spirit was all over me. I wanted to tell everyone about my Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit.

My direction in life has changed. For the first time in my life I feel the love of God and the love of His people. We serve a wonderful and mighty God.

GOD'S PURPOSE FOR OUR FELLOWSHIP

- To reach men everywhere for Jesus Christ with the same social, cultural or business interests.
  - To call men to God: to help men become born again, baptized in the Holy Spirit, operate in the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.
  - To mentor young men who have never had positive male role model by being a spiritual father to them.
  - To provide a basis of fellowship among all men everywhere, regardless of church affiliation.
  - To bring about a greater measure of unity and harmony in the Body of Christ.
  - To train and equip men to succeed in the business world.
