

Would you like to hear the Good News?

God still loves you. He never stopped loving you. He loved you so much that He sent His Son Jesus to bring you back. All you have to do is let Him bring you back. Will you pray with me?

"Lord Jesus... I want to stop trusting in myself...and what I can do...and start trusting in you...and what you have already done...when you died for me on the cross. I know that I am a sinner...and I am sorry for my sins. I ask you to forgive me...I believe you rose again...and I invite you to come and live inside of me. I want you to be my Savior and Lord...which means being #1 in my life. I want to repent and turn away...from everything you and the Bible call sin...and I totally commit myself...to obeying you...everyday, for the rest of my life. Lord Jesus baptize me in your precious Holy Spirit. Thank you Jesus."

Now that you have made peace with God, He is ready for you to begin to grow in a personal relationship with Him.

Receiving More Of Jesus? "The Baptism in the Holy Spirit"

1. Did you know that God has a good gift for you – the Holy Spirit?
2. Would you like to ask God to receive the Holy Spirit – Luke 11:13?
3. Do you believe the Bible is the Word of God?
4. Have you heard of the Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit and that all are in agreement with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit? The Father is the One Who Promised – Acts 1:8. Jesus is the One Who Baptizes us in the Holy Spirit – Luke 3:16. The Holy Spirit is the One who gives us the utterance or the words and that this is the "initial sign" of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit – Acts 2:4.
5. Do you believe that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is speaking in tongues? – Acts 10:44-46, Acts 19:2-6
6. Would you like to know why the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is important?
 - a. Receive the ability or power of the Holy Spirit – Acts 1:8
 - b. Build up your most holy faith – Jude 1:20
 - c. Edify yourself (give yourself a spiritual battery charge) – 1 Cor. 14:4
 - d. Speak mysteries to God – 1 Corinthians 14:2
 - e. When you don't know how to pray, the Holy Spirit will pray through you the perfect will of God. (When you pray in other tongues) – Romans 8:26-28
7. How is "Salvation" different than the "Baptism in the Holy Spirit?"

Answer: Jesus described the born again experience as a "fountain of water springing up into everlasting life – John 4:14. Salvation is to benefit the believer. When we are born again the Holy Spirit enters our spirit and assures us of eternal life with God. Jesus describes the Baptism in the Holy Spirit as "rivers of living water flowing out of the heart – John 7:38-39." The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is to benefit those for whom we minister. The Baptism of the Holy Spirit provides us the power that flows out of our spirit to meet the needs of others.
8. The disciples were in the upper room on the Day of Pentecost and when they were in one accord in one place "they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance – Acts 2:4. Who spoke in other tongues?
9. Do you believe that words are made up of syllables?
10. Will you confess that you have received the Holy Spirit, before you speak in tongues?
11. By faith speak in syllables, and allow the Holy Spirit to have your tongue, to form syllables into a new language or tongue. The Holy Spirit will flow from your heart.
12. Pray for a minute in tongues and stop. The prophet controls his own spirit or his own tongue – 1 Corinthians 14:32.
13. Continue to pray in tongues and worship the Lord.

God Hates Divorce

Hearing His Voice

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony...

Revelation 12:11

George Prah

My name is George Prah and I am the CEO of Ikon Limited, an Industrial Consultancy firm and National President of the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship International in Ghana. I am married with four children and I would like to tell you my story. For twelve years out of a twenty two year old marriage, our relationship was like Israel and Palestine. We had married as young Christians and typically looked forward to a life of bliss as most couples do. God blessed us in many ways in our lives, with good jobs and four lovely children in rapid succession. Then the war broke out.

For fifteen years thereafter it was as if we were total strangers sentenced to live under one roof. We agreed on nothing, and quarreled about everything. Peace was found by living in separate rooms, and though the atmosphere was most painful for growing children, we somehow managed to show them love as best as the awkward circumstances of our home would allow. The hostilities between us grew increasingly intense for no logical reason and no amount of counseling or intervening prayers by friends, pastors or prophets seemed to make any difference to the precarious situation. We were both 'right' in our own eyes and totally set in our ways providing the perfect atmosphere for Satan to plant his foot stool, and yet we were both Christians, proclaiming the love and mercies of God. The enemy only needs a little gap in our lives, and how willingly we provide him such easy access to steal, to kill, and to destroy.

With no solution in sight divorce seemed to be the only solution, as God could not have possibly have joined together such an impossible union. I searched the scriptures, and even found justification for the divorce. It was not His perfect will but surely permissible under peculiar circumstances. We proceeded to court, both of us consenting that it was the best thing to do. Surely it should have been a simple process, as there was nothing to contest. My conviction was all the more certain, when I received a most damning submission from her lawyers. I read a catalogue of false and concocted accusations against me, which came as a huge shock. I immediately concluded that my wife of several years obviously never actually knew me and so the divorce was obviously justified. I showed it to her best friend one evening, who was equally shocked at what she read.

Two days later she called back to tell me apparently my wife herself never made that submission, and in fact had not even seen what her lawyer had written. I did not believe her but it turned out to be true. Satan was out to do his worst. A week before our first appearance, my wife asked for reconciliation but I would have none of it. The pain had gone on too long. A few days to the first hearing, she pleaded again, but I would not budge. And so we went to court. It was brief and simple. There was nothing to contest, and we were given one month to come back with our proposals for custody and final judgment.

A strange thing happened. As I sat in court that morning, the only thing that struck me profoundly was that my wife seemed to me to be in a daze. I left court with a strong conviction that something was not right, and that perhaps she did not seem to know why we were there in the first place. I felt a strong urge, to write a seven page note to her immediately, elaborating our traumatic past and explaining the reasons for our agreeing to divorce which should have been obvious. I sent it the same afternoon to her office. When she came home that evening, she acknowledged receipt of the note, much to my surprise, and promised to respond shortly. The response came a few days later, and what came was also a shock to me. I showed it to my good friend, and his immediate response was that this marriage could be saved. It was full of acknowledgements and acceptance of the very things we had argued bitterly over for the past twelve years. Together with another friend they travailed in prayer and in just two days, the miracle was on its way. It was as if we had lived in mutual darkness all these twelve years and suddenly light had dawned. Grievous events of the past that brought misunderstandings suddenly made perfect sense and whatever always looked unreasonable, now sounded perfectly reasonable. God had miraculously cleansed our eyes and we could also declare that “once I was blind, but now I see”. Two days before the impending divorce judgment, everything changed. We were fully reconciled, and the true honeymoon had begun. On the appointed day, I went alone to court to proclaim the good news. The lady judge shouted “Praise the Lord! You have made my day.”

Jesus loved Lazarus and his sisters Mary and Martha, and yet his was happy to wait for a couple of days before attending to the need. Lazarus "died." Then he was happy to declare, that this sickness is not unto death. No, it is for God's glory so that God's s Son may be glorified through it." Jesus loves us, and promised He will NEVER leave us nor forsake us. We must NEVER GIVE UP, NEVER GIVE UP, even when all looks hopeless and even dead. If HE said it, he will do it. We only must believe.

OUR VISION FROM GOD: Men who are spiritually dead are standing shoulder to shoulder across the globe; hear and receive the message of hope, and are spiritually resurrected from the dead, filled with God's Holy Spirit, with radiant faces and hands lifted toward heaven praising God.
