

Would you like to hear the Good News?

God still loves you. He never stopped loving you. He loved you so much that He sent His Son Jesus to bring you back. All you have to do is let Him bring you back. Will you pray with me?

“Lord Jesus... I want to stop trusting in myself...and what I can do...and start trusting in you...and what you have already done...when you died for me on the cross. I know that I am a sinner...and I am sorry for my sins. I ask you to forgive me...I believe you rose again...and I invite you to come and live inside of me. I want you to be my Savior and Lord...which means being #1 in my life. I want to repent and turn away...from everything you and the Bible call sin...and I totally commit myself...to obeying you...everyday, for the rest of my life. Lord Jesus baptize me in your precious Holy Spirit. Thank you Jesus.”

Now that you have made peace with God, He is ready for you to begin to grow in a personal relationship with Him.

Receiving More Of Jesus? “The Baptism in the Holy Spirit”

1. Did you know that God has a good gift for you – the Holy Spirit?
2. Would you like to ask God to receive the Holy Spirit – Luke 11:13?
3. Do you believe the Bible is the Word of God?
4. Have you heard of the Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit and that all are in agreement with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit? The Father is the One Who Promised – Acts 1:8. Jesus is the One Who Baptizes us in the Holy Spirit – Luke 3:16. The Holy Spirit is the One who gives us the utterance or the words and that this is the “initial sign” of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit – Acts 2:4.
5. Do you believe that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is speaking in tongues? – Acts 10:44-46, Acts 19:2-6
6. Would you like to know why the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is important?
 - a. Receive the ability or power of the Holy Spirit – Acts 1:8
 - b. Build up your most holy faith – Jude 1:20
 - c. Edify yourself (give yourself a spiritual battery charge) – 1 Cor. 14:4
 - d. Speak mysteries to God – 1 Corinthians 14:2
 - e. When you don’t know how to pray, the Holy Spirit will pray through you the perfect will of God. (When you pray in other tongues) – Romans 8:26-28
7. How is “Salvation” different than the “Baptism in the Holy Spirit?”

Answer: Jesus described the born again experience as a “fountain of water springing up into everlasting life – John 4:14. Salvation is to benefit the believer. When we are born again the Holy Spirit enters our spirit and assures us of eternal life with God. Jesus describes the Baptism in the Holy Spirit as “rivers of living water flowing out of the heart – John 7:38-39.” The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is to benefit those for whom we minister. The Baptism of the Holy Spirit provides us the power that flows out of our spirit to meet the needs of others.
8. The disciples were in the upper room on the Day of Pentecost and when they were in one accord in one place “they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance – Acts 2:4. Who spoke in other tongues?
9. Do you believe that words are made up of syllables?
10. Will you confess that you have received the Holy Spirit, before you speak in tongues?
11. By faith speak in syllables, and allow the Holy Spirit to have your tongue, to form syllables into a new language or tongue. The Holy Spirit will flow from your heart.
12. Pray for a minute in tongues and stop. The prophet controls his own spirit or his own tongue – 1 Corinthians 14:32.
13. Continue to pray in tongues and worship the Lord.

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony...

Revelation 12:11

Matthew Dudynski

I was raised in a very strict family. My dad was in the military for twenty years and Special Forces for four of it. I had to do what I was told when I was told. Growing up, my parents didn’t believe in just one God. They believed that every god was the same thing. I didn’t know who to pray to, and it wasn’t high up on my list.

With my dad being in the military, we moved around a lot, and I didn’t have any friends growing up. I distanced myself from people up until I was 14, when my dad retired from the Air Force. We came to Greenville, and I decided I was going to try and make some friends. The first person I met gave me a 40 ounce alcoholic beverage the first time I went to his house. The next day I went to his house, he gave me some drugs. I was actually feeling like I belonged somewhere for once. I got caught when I was 16 and I quit the drugs, but I kept on drinking.

When I turned 18, I met my wife April at the YMCA. Three years later, we were getting serious about our relationship and knew that we wanted to get married. I figured that I needed to support her and decided to enlist in the Army National Guard. My dad talked me out of joining the Army, so the next day I went and enlisted in the Navy. I got shipped off to basic training and I missed my wife. This was the first time I actually spoke to God. This was a big deal for me, because God was basically a joke. Prior to me enlisting, I got into a car wreck and got adult onset asthma. The military did some investigation and ran some tests and found out I had moderate asthma, which is too severe for the military. I got a general discharge and came home, but I stopped talking to God. My drinking picked up a lot more.

Our marriage was on the rocks. One night, we got into a big fight and she said, "I'm going to the library to study." I said, "Don't come back if you want, I don't care." She left and ran into our friend Amanda. She came home and said, "I think we need to go to church." I said, "No, I'm not going to go. I don't care." So later, we're at church on a Wednesday night and Amanda came to my wife and I and said, "If you don't talk your differences out now, your marriage is going to fail." Then she looked at me and started telling me stuff that I had never told anyone. I broke down and started crying, and that's when I realized for a fact that God was real.

That night, I made the decision that this is who I was going to serve. I did 180 degrees. I had a lot of alcohol in my fridge, and I went home and poured them all out so I wouldn't have the temptation. I was a big rap person and I loved Eminem because I could relate to his angry music so much. We got rid of all of our music that didn't glorify God, and we had to start new. I'm not saying we snapped our fingers and our marriage was better. We still had our differences, but it is still getting better to this day.

I decided to get baptized a week after I got saved, and my parents were telling me that I was brainwashed and joining a cult. Within the month, I got filled with the Holy Spirit. In the altar service, I specifically chose to go to my friend Chris, who prayed with me to receive the baptism. I felt the Holy Spirit within me and my heart. I felt like I belong somewhere for once, and I didn't need worldly approval. All I needed was God. I started getting direction from God and began to hear His voice. The weirdest thing I heard from God was "Quit your job." I told my wife, and I did what God said to do. I knew that God was taking care of us. I got a job at L-3 Communications, and this was a miracle in itself.

About a year later I decided to attend the FGBMF Men's Advance in Palestine, TX. Jaime Sol was the speaker and spoke on healing. He invited me up to pray for my friend, Jeremiah who had one leg shorter than the other which caused him great pain. Jeremiah was asked to sit down and I was instructed to command the shorter leg to grow. Instantly, legs were the same length, the pain was gone, and Jeremiah was healed. To give God even more glory my wife was in a wreck and was hit by an 18 wheeler. The tire of the rig was hitting my son's door, and it was a miracle that they survived. To top it all off, a stop sign kept my wife's truck from rolling over.
