

Would you like to hear the Good News?

God still loves you. He never stopped loving you. He loved you so much that He sent His Son Jesus to bring you back. All you have to do is let Him bring you back. Will you pray with me?

"Lord Jesus... I want to stop trusting in myself...and what I can do...and start trusting in you...and what you have already done...when you died for me on the cross. I know that I am a sinner...and I am sorry for my sins. I ask you to forgive me...I believe you rose again...and I invite you to come and live inside of me. I want you to be my Savior and Lord...which means being #1 in my life. I want to repent and turn away...from everything you and the Bible call sin...and I totally commit myself...to obeying you...everyday, for the rest of my life. Lord Jesus baptize me in your precious Holy Spirit. Thank you Jesus."

Now that you have made peace with God, He is ready for you to begin to grow in a personal relationship with Him.

Receiving More Of Jesus? "The Baptism in the Holy Spirit"

1. Did you know that God has a good gift for you – the Holy Spirit?
2. Would you like to ask God to receive the Holy Spirit – Luke 11:13?
3. Do you believe the Bible is the Word of God?
4. Have you heard of the Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit and that all are in agreement with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit? The Father is the One Who Promised – Acts 1:8. Jesus is the One Who Baptizes us in the Holy Spirit – Luke 3:16. The Holy Spirit is the One who gives us the utterance or the words and that this is the "initial sign" of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit – Acts 2:4.
5. Do you believe that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is speaking in tongues? – Acts 10:44-46, Acts 19:2-6
6. Would you like to know why the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is important?
 - a. Receive the ability or power of the Holy Spirit – Acts 1:8
 - b. Build up your most holy faith – Jude 1:20
 - c. Edify yourself (give yourself a spiritual battery charge) – 1 Cor. 14:4
 - d. Speak mysteries to God – 1 Corinthians 14:2
 - e. When you don't know how to pray, the Holy Spirit will pray through you the perfect will of God. (When you pray in other tongues) – Romans 8:26-28
7. How is "Salvation" different than the "Baptism in the Holy Spirit?"
Answer: Jesus described the born again experience as a "fountain of water springing up into everlasting life – John 4:14. Salvation is to benefit the believer. When we are born again the Holy Spirit enters our spirit and assures us of eternal life with God. Jesus describes the Baptism in the Holy Spirit as "rivers of living water flowing out of the heart – John 7:38-39." The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is to benefit those for whom we minister. The Baptism of the Holy Spirit provides us the power that flows out of our spirit to meet the needs of others.
8. The disciples were in the upper room on the Day of Pentecost and when they were in one accord in one place "they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance – Acts 2:4. Who spoke in other tongues?
9. Do you believe that words are made up of syllables?
10. Will you confess that you have received the Holy Spirit, before you speak in tongues?
11. By faith speak in syllables, and allow the Holy Spirit to have your tongue, to form syllables into a new language or tongue. The Holy Spirit will flow from your heart.
12. Pray for a minute in tongues and stop. The prophet controls his own spirit or his own tongue – 1 Corinthians 14:32.
13. Continue to pray in tongues and worship the Lord.

Guns to Gospel

Michael Vijaykumar

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony...

Revelation 12:11

Michael was born into a family of doctors working in the Campbell Mission Hospital in Jammalamadugu, a small town in Rayalaseema District in Andhra Pradesh, India. His parents wanted him to follow their footsteps but at the age of 26 Michael plunged into active politics. He believed that temporal power and wealth defined a successful man and he put all his energies to acquiring them. As his reputation grew, it brought him into direct conflict with powerful local leaders. Spurred by the support he received from the people and the successes against his adversaries, Michael slowly metamorphosed into a power hungry, arrogant and cruel man. Violently temperamental, he physically assaulted and terrorized anybody who chanced to cross his path and even his family did not escape his unpredictable and irrational temper.

The path of power drew him inexorably into the bloody political landscape of the district and Michael Babu as he was now known became one of the most feared and ruthless factionists the state had ever seen. The entire district lived in a state of fear as rivals fought it out with bombs and guns on the roads. In the fourteen years of his involvement in the politics of the faction ridden District, he was responsible for many murders, riots and criminal intimidation, booth capturing during elections and other crimes against the state and its people. Imprisoned a number of times, he nevertheless wielded power from prison, having terrorized the police force too.

Michael could no longer bear the extreme stress of his dangerous existence and the escalating friction with the District Police Chief in 1993 forced him to flee to Madras, now known as Chennai. There he stayed with his relatives, a prayerful and godly family. He observed the happiness and love that the family shared, even in their simple life. He realized the immense difference between his situation and theirs. Questions crowded his mind and he fell into deep introspection on the folly of his ways and thoughts. He desired to know more about what made them so content even though they were not well off as he was, nor possessed the power and charisma he had. They told him of the love of Jesus Christ and his ability to heal the darkness of his soul. They introduced him to the elders of the Laymen's Evangelical Fellowship to whom he narrated his plight. They prayed mightily for his redemption.

There the power of God worked its miracle on his tortured soul. He read the Bible avidly, and started praying to God, seeking the answers that had long eluded him. One night he had an amazing vision. He saw himself laying hand on a crowd of people and blessing them. He woke up and asked himself, "is this not the work of pastors?" After a few days, God spoke to him again through Isa 42. 6. The light of God was shining on that verse.

The power of God worked its miracle
on his tortured soul.

The stunning events in Madras were viewed with disbelief in Michael Babu's hometown. Many believed it was only a ruse to escape his seemingly inevitable fate. Others believed that it was only another chapter in his checkered life and eventful. Even his own relatives and bodyguards believed the change to be temporary. When Michael Babu returned to Jammalamadugu, he publicly renounced politics. This became headlines in the papers. People saw a visible change in the man they once feared. He spent long hours in prayer seeking guidance for the course his life was to take. Even the most implacable of his enemies were taken by surprise when he publicly and privately asked forgiveness from more than 300 people whom he had wronged, whose lives he had destroyed. He performed this incredibly difficult and even dangerous duty with a serene confidence in the grace and guiding purpose of God.

Michael was baptized in the Laymen's Evangelical Fellowship and he began publicly preaching the Holy word. His transformation was so remarkable that many who came to hear him were themselves changed.

Michael's saga had yet another surprise. The criminal cases that were pending against him were miraculously closed by the police and the judiciary and he renewed his work in God. Michael became a powerful witness and an evangelist for Christ and his remarkable testament to the life changing grace of God moves people wherever he goes.

OUR VISION FROM GOD: Men who are spiritually dead are standing shoulder to shoulder across the globe; hear and receive the message of hope, and are spiritually resurrected from the dead, filled with God's Holy Spirit, with radiant faces and hands lifted toward heaven praising God.

GOD'S PURPOSE FOR OUR FELLOWSHIP

- To reach men everywhere for Jesus Christ with the same social, cultural or business interests.
- To call men to God: to help men become born again, baptized in the Holy Spirit, operate in the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.
- To mentor young men who have never had positive male role model by being a spiritual father to them.
- To provide a basis of fellowship among all men everywhere, regardless of church affiliation.
- To bring about a greater measure of unity and harmony in the Body of Christ.
- To train and equip men to succeed in the business world.
