

Would you like to hear the Good News?

God still loves you. He never stopped loving you. He loved you so much that He sent His Son Jesus to bring you back. All you have to do is let Him bring you back. Will you pray with me?

“Lord Jesus... I want to stop trusting in myself...and what I can do...and start trusting in you...and what you have already done...when you died for me on the cross. I know that I am a sinner...and I am sorry for my sins. I ask you to forgive me...I believe you rose again...and I invite you to come and live inside of me. I want you to be my Savior and Lord...which means being #1 in my life. I want to repent and turn away...from everything you and the Bible call sin...and I totally commit myself...to obeying you...everyday, for the rest of my life. Lord Jesus baptize me in your precious Holy Spirit. Thank you Jesus.”

Now that you have made peace with God, He is ready for you to begin to grow in a personal relationship with Him.

Receiving More Of Jesus? “The Baptism in the Holy Spirit”

1. Did you know that God has a good gift for you – the Holy Spirit?
2. Would you like to ask God to receive the Holy Spirit – Luke 11:13?
3. Do you believe the Bible is the Word of God?
4. Have you heard of the Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit and that all are in agreement with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit? The Father is the One Who Promised – Acts 1:8. Jesus is the One Who Baptizes us in the Holy Spirit – Luke 3:16. The Holy Spirit is the One who gives us the utterance or the words and that this is the “initial sign” of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit – Acts 2:4.
5. Do you believe that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is speaking in tongues? – Acts 10:44-46, Acts 19:2-6
6. Would you like to know why the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is important?
 - a. Receive the ability or power of the Holy Spirit – Acts 1:8
 - b. Build up your most holy faith – Jude 1:20
 - c. Edify yourself (give yourself a spiritual battery charge) – 1 Cor. 14:4
 - d. Speak mysteries to God – 1 Corinthians 14:2
 - e. When you don’t know how to pray, the Holy Spirit will pray through you the perfect will of God. (When you pray in other tongues) – Romans 8:26-28
7. How is “Salvation” different than the “Baptism in the Holy Spirit?”
Answer: Jesus described the born again experience as a “fountain of water springing up into everlasting life – John 4:14. Salvation is to benefit the believer. When we are born again the Holy Spirit enters our spirit and assures us of eternal life with God. Jesus describes the Baptism in the Holy Spirit as “rivers of living water flowing out of the heart – John 7:38-39.” The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is to benefit those for whom we minister. The Baptism of the Holy Spirit provides us the power that flows out of our spirit to meet the needs of others.
8. The disciples were in the upper room on the Day of Pentecost and when they were in one accord in one place “they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance – Acts 2:4. Who spoke in other tongues?
9. Do you believe that words are made up of syllables?
10. Will you confess that you have received the Holy Spirit, before you speak in tongues?
11. By faith speak in syllables, and allow the Holy Spirit to have your tongue, to form syllables into a new language or tongue. The Holy Spirit will flow from your heart.
12. Pray for a minute in tongues and stop. The prophet controls his own spirit or his own tongue – 1 Corinthians 14:32.
13. Continue to pray in tongues and worship the Lord.

www.fgbt.org

www.fgbmfamerica.com

Hearing His Voice

Never Surrender

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony...

Revelation 12:11

Lt. General Boykin

Although I grew up in the church and had seen many people accept Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, I had struggled with my own faith. I struggled because I wanted to enjoy the fruits of the world that I lived in without the accountability of being a born-again Christian. In other words, I wanted to do my own thing and did not want to be burdened with the guilt of knowing that I was not living my faith.

So, it was just easier for me to live for the world rather than God - with no pretense of being a Christian. I knew what God expected of me, but I was not willing to surrender my life to Him, as it would be disruptive of the direction that I wanted to go in life. Furthermore, I knew that my mother was a very dedicated Christian woman who prayed for me continually and that God would honor her prayers and protect me from harm. So what did I have to worry about?

I went through my college years as a football player at Virginia Tech and enjoyed living a lifestyle of disobedience to God. Oh, there were times when I prayed and sought help from God, but never a time when I made a commitment to serve Him. I normally prayed when I was in trouble or in serious need of something from Him. I knew that the day would come when I was going to have to change my lifestyle and submit to God’s authority, but I did not believe that it would come when it did.

Immediately after college, I was commissioned as an officer in the US Army and sent to Fort Benning, Georgia to attend the officer basic course. I had a great future ahead of me serving the country and looked forward to what lay ahead. But as I settled in to life in the Army, a foreboding feeling became my constant companion. I was not feeling the excitement that I should have as a new Army officer. I felt no peace about what I was doing with my life. I knew that when I finished at Fort Benning, I would be leading men and enjoying a life of excitement as an Airborne Ranger Infantry officer, preparing and leading young soldiers. But I could not shake the feeling of gloom that consumed me.

“What is it?”, I would ask myself from time to time. “I should be happy, but I am not.” It was perplexing to me. But then one evening in my small room at Fort Benning, I knew the answer to my own question as I sensed that the Holy Spirit was speaking to me. I felt that God was saying, “I have a plan for your life, but it can only be fulfilled if you submit your life to Me and turn from your sin.” Well, there it was in very clear terms. I knew that I had been running from God, and now it was time to choose the course of my future. I could continue to live as I had with no promise of God’s providential hand on me, or I could turn my life over to Him and seek His forgiveness for the life I had lived up to this point. The choice was mine and mine alone.

I knelt in my room on the night of the 21st of January, 1971 and began to seek God’s forgiveness. “I am tired of running, Lord,” I prayed, “I want to know you, and I want you to forgive me of my sins and give me a new life and a new chance to serve you as I serve this nation.” That was it; my sins were forgiven and I have been in a relationship with Him ever since. He has been my companion, guide and ever-present friend. I seek Him daily and praise and thank Him for all the blessings that He has bestowed on me and my family. I intend to remain in His service for the remainder of my life because no human can ever provide the companionship of the living Savior, Jesus Christ.

“I am tired of running, Lord... I want to know You.”

I felt that God was saying, “I have a plan for your life, but it can only be fulfilled if you submit your life to Me and turn from your sin.”

LTG (Ret) William G. “Jerry” Boykin was one of the original members of the US Army's Delta Force. He was privileged to ultimately command these elite warriors in combat operations. Later, Jerry Boykin commanded all the Army's Green Berets as well as the Special Warfare Center and School.

In his thirty-six years in the army, LTG Boykin also served a tour with the CIA. He has participated in clandestine operations around the world and served his last four years in the Army as the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Intelligence. Today he is an ordained minister with a passion for spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ and encouraging Christians to become Warriors in God's Kingdom.

OUR VISION FROM GOD: Men who are spiritually dead are standing shoulder to shoulder across the globe; hear and receive the message of hope, and are spiritually resurrected from the dead, filled with God’s Holy Spirit, with radiant faces and hands lifted toward heaven praising God.

GOD’S PURPOSE FOR OUR FELLOWSHIP

- To reach men everywhere for Jesus Christ with the same social, cultural or business interests.
- To call men to God: to help men become born again, baptized in the Holy Spirit, operate in the Gifts of the Holy Spirit.
- To mentor young men who have never had positive male role model by being a spiritual father to them.
- To provide a basis of fellowship among all men everywhere, regardless of church affiliation.
- To bring about a greater measure of unity and harmony in the Body of Christ.
- To train and equip men to succeed in the business world.

Learning about Business

Go to www.fgbt.org to access this testimony and many more free trainings. Click on Business Multiplication Plan in the top tool bar. In the dropdown menu, click on free Business Seminars. Click on the hyperlink at the end of the topic.

Click on the FGBMF in America link on the tool bar. Click on Business by the Spirit and download the free PDFs.