

Would you like to hear the Good News?

God still loves you. He never stopped loving you. He loved you so much that He sent His Son Jesus to bring you back. All you have to do is let Him bring you back. Will you pray with me?

“Lord Jesus... I want to stop trusting in myself...and what I can do...and start trusting in you...and what you have already done...when you died for me on the cross. I know that I am a sinner...and I am sorry for my sins. I ask you to forgive me...I believe you rose again...and I invite you to come and live inside of me. I want you to be my Savior and Lord...which means being #1 in my life. I want to repent and turn away...from everything you and the Bible call sin...and I totally commit myself...to obeying you...everyday, for the rest of my life. Lord Jesus baptize me in your precious Holy Spirit. Thank you Jesus.”

Now that you have made peace with God, He is ready for you to begin to grow in a personal relationship with Him.

Receiving More Of Jesus? “The Baptism in the Holy Spirit”

1. Did you know that God has a good gift for you – the Holy Spirit?
2. Would you like to ask God to receive the Holy Spirit – Luke 11:13?
3. Do you believe the Bible is the Word of God?
4. Have you heard of the Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit and that all are in agreement with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit? The Father is the One Who Promised – Acts 1:8. Jesus is the One Who Baptizes us in the Holy Spirit – Luke 3:16. The Holy Spirit is the One who gives us the utterance or the words and that this is the “initial sign” of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit – Acts 2:4.
5. Do you believe that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is speaking in tongues? – Acts 10:44-46, Acts 19:2-6
6. Would you like to know why the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is important?
 - a. Receive the ability or power of the Holy Spirit – Acts 1:8
 - b. Build up your most holy faith – Jude 1:20
 - c. Edify yourself (give yourself a spiritual battery charge) – 1 Cor. 14:4
 - d. Speak mysteries to God – 1 Corinthians 14:2
 - e. When you don’t know how to pray, the Holy Spirit will pray through you the perfect will of God. (When you pray in other tongues) – Romans 8:26-28
7. How is “Salvation” different than the “Baptism in the Holy Spirit?”
Answer: Jesus described the born again experience as a “fountain of water springing up into everlasting life – John 4:14. Salvation is to benefit the believer. When we are born again the Holy Spirit enters our spirit and assures us of eternal life with God. Jesus describes the Baptism in the Holy Spirit as “rivers of living water flowing out of the heart – John 7:38-39.” The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is to benefit those for whom we minister. The Baptism of the Holy Spirit provides us the power that flows out of our spirit to meet the needs of others.
8. The disciples were in the upper room on the Day of Pentecost and when they were in one accord in one place “they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance – Acts 2:4. Who spoke in other tongues?
9. Do you believe that words are made up of syllables?
10. Will you confess that you have received the Holy Spirit, before you speak in tongues?
11. By faith speak in syllables, and allow the Holy Spirit to have your tongue, to form syllables into a new language or tongue. The Holy Spirit will flow from your heart.
12. Pray for a minute in tongues and stop. The prophet controls his own spirit or his own tongue – 1 Corinthians 14:32.
13. Continue to pray in tongues and worship the Lord.

Hearing His Voice

Overcoming Addictions

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony...

Revelation 12:11

Logon Hanington

I’m from a town called Mattawamkeag, where two rivers meet. I grew up in a family of five. I have two sisters. My mom is a hairdresser and accountant and my father works in the woods. I grew up in a family where my dad was always working and my mom usually took care of me. I never saw my dad much. When he was home, he was always sleeping or watching TV.

I was going to church growing up, but it really wasn’t a relationship with Jesus. In Junior High around seventh grade I started hanging out with friends that were into drugs. I started smoking pot and drinking in eighth grade. By ninth grade I started doing pills. I was playing basketball and we would be doing pills on the back of the bus, getting high before games. I had left my parent’s house in ninth grade and was living with drug dealers. I was going back and forth from my parent’s house and would take money from them and steal stuff. I lived a rebellious, foolish life and I didn’t have the comfort of love when I was in my house. I didn’t have the love that I needed growing up so I decided to do my own thing.

By the time I was a junior in high school, I was living in sexual sin and addictions and I was at the point where I hated my life and became suicidal. The only people I liked were the people I did drugs with and I despised my parents.

I happened to be driving my truck when a couple of my buddies were mouthing off to me after I had done some crystal meth. We were swearing at each other, and I kicked them out of the truck right off the highway.

While driving, I felt like I was about to pass out and I was at the point where I wanted to kill myself. So I said, “God, take over my life and really save me from this life that I’m living.” I rolled the truck over that I was in and the next day I found myself in the hospital thinking back about what happened. By the mercy of God, I actually walked up the bank after the accident.

“God, take over my life and really save me from this life that I’m living.”

My parents had to come get me from Eastern Main Medical Center and they told me that I needed to either go to a drug rehab center or get counseling. I told them I wanted to kill myself and that I was miserable, but I decided to get counseling with the pastor. He told me to start reading through the Word and that I had to have an encounter of God’s love to really know Jesus and experience transformation.

At the altar a couple of weeks later, I prayed the prayer, but I was still doing drugs. A little at a time I was breaking off from addictions, but it was in my own strength. Six months went by and my parents got a divorce. This destroyed my thought of God being real, and I went back into drugs, seven times worse. I was violent and got to the point where I was into oxy 80’s. The summer of 2009, on the night that I was supposed to be with my cousin, he was at a party drinking and mixing methadone with some stuff. The next morning I got a call that he was in the hospital, and it awakened me to the mercy of God again.

Two weeks later I got on my knees before God in the altar at church and I gave my heart over to Jesus. This was the first time I really encountered the love of God. I knew I needed a Savior and someone to guide me in life. I left Maine and started to pursue a career in automotives. I was in my apartment weeping on the floor, encountering God as I was reading His Word. God asked me to give up everything that I had and move back, so I did. I knew His grace was sufficient for me.

I moved back in with my father and comforted him during the divorce. He couldn’t be a father to me. My dad never comforted me at all. I never got the love because he was a workaholic and all he cared about was the system of the world and the American dream. They had the cars, the clothes and money, and even went to church, but all they cared about was prosperity.

If you haven’t encountered the love of the Father and really need to be embraced by Him, just simply pray and call out to him right now.
