

Would you like to hear the Good News?

God still loves you. He never stopped loving you. He loved you so much that He sent His Son Jesus to bring you back. All you have to do is let Him bring you back. Will you pray with me?

“Lord Jesus... I want to stop trusting in myself...and what I can do...and start trusting in you...and what you have already done...when you died for me on the cross. I know that I am a sinner...and I am sorry for my sins. I ask you to forgive me...I believe you rose again...and I invite you to come and live inside of me. I want you to be my Savior and Lord...which means being #1 in my life. I want to repent and turn away...from everything you and the Bible call sin...and I totally commit myself...to obeying you...everyday, for the rest of my life. Lord Jesus baptize me in your precious Holy Spirit. Thank you Jesus.”

Now that you have made peace with God, He is ready for you to begin to grow in a personal relationship with Him.

Receiving More Of Jesus? “The Baptism in the Holy Spirit”

1. Did you know that God has a good gift for you – the Holy Spirit?
2. Would you like to ask God to receive the Holy Spirit – Luke 11:13?
3. Do you believe the Bible is the Word of God?
4. Have you heard of the Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit and that all are in agreement with the Baptism of the Holy Spirit? The Father is the One Who Promised – Acts 1:8. Jesus is the One Who Baptizes us in the Holy Spirit – Luke 3:16. The Holy Spirit is the One who gives us the utterance or the words and that this is the “initial sign” of the Baptism of the Holy Spirit – Acts 2:4.
5. Do you believe that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is speaking in tongues? – Acts 10:44-46, Acts 19:2-6
6. Would you like to know why the Baptism in the Holy Spirit is important?
 - a. Receive the ability or power of the Holy Spirit – Acts 1:8
 - b. Build up your most holy faith – Jude 1:20
 - c. Edify yourself (give yourself a spiritual battery charge) – 1 Cor. 14:4
 - d. Speak mysteries to God – 1 Corinthians 14:2
 - e. When you don’t know how to pray, the Holy Spirit will pray through you the perfect will of God. (When you pray in other tongues) – Romans 8:26-28
7. How is “Salvation” different than the “Baptism in the Holy Spirit?”
Answer: Jesus described the born again experience as a “fountain of water springing up into everlasting life – John 4:14. Salvation is to benefit the believer. When we are born again the Holy Spirit enters our spirit and assures us of eternal life with God. Jesus describes the Baptism in the Holy Spirit as “rivers of living water flowing out of the heart – John 7:38-39.” The Baptism of the Holy Spirit is to benefit those for whom we minister. The Baptism of the Holy Spirit provides us the power that flows out of our spirit to meet the needs of others.
8. The disciples were in the upper room on the Day of Pentecost and when they were in one accord in one place “they were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance – Acts 2:4. Who spoke in other tongues?
9. Do you believe that words are made up of syllables?
10. Will you confess that you have received the Holy Spirit, before you speak in tongues?
11. By faith speak in syllables, and allow the Holy Spirit to have your tongue, to form syllables into a new language or tongue. The Holy Spirit will flow from your heart.
12. Pray for a minute in tongues and stop. The prophet controls his own spirit or his own tongue – 1 Corinthians 14:32.
13. Continue to pray in tongues and worship the Lord.

Hearing His Voice

Slavery to Salvation

They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony...

Revelation 12:11

Reiner Huss

I was born in North Germany between two oceans. I was raised in West Germany and I lived the last five years in Berlin. I was very involved in history and it was very fascinating for me. My parents took me to a Lutheran state church in Germany. I always noticed there was someone above everything, and it fascinated me. I came to youth services, and I sang the songs, but there was never a point that I said I was in connection with God. I always thought He was there and that He had His ten commandments, and I just needed to do my best because at the end I knew He would make some kind of choice.

At the age of 14, I went to a service at the Lutheran church and confessed the words that the pastor said before me. When I did it, suddenly a voice spoke to me and asked, “Do you believe that?” I was shocked and I opened my eyes and there was no one speaking to me. The next Sunday, we came to the same place and we confessed our faith and we came to a passage where we confessed belief in the Holy Spirit. The same voice asked me, “Do you want to have My Spirit?” I said, “Yes,” and opened up my eyes but there was no one there.

The same voice asked me, “Do you want to have My Spirit?”

From that moment on, I loved to pray. I’ve had no teaching about prayer, but as a young boy I would be on my bicycle riding around joyful and praying. I had no clue what was happening to me because I was taught nothing about the gospel. At church we learned when you pray you bow your head, close your eyes, and put your hands together. I tried doing this on my bike, but ran into a parked vehicle and decided to pray with my eyes open while on my bike.

There were people standing and singing joyful songs, raising their hands to God...this was a totally new picture for me.

At the age of 19, I couldn't handle that everyone at the church was criticizing me. My parents, teacher, and pastor were displeased with me. I couldn't figure out how God, who was full of color and depth, could have character like these people. I went out of church and said I would not be back. I finished my job education as a butcher and went to Bavaria to learn more, thinking I would open my own shop. There, I got together with charismatic believers in the Lutheran state church. They had the traditional service early in the morning, but at 11:00 AM, there were people standing and singing joyful songs, raising their hands to God. I wondered if this was OK, but I liked the joy and trusted my friend so I came Friday evening to a church that was hosted in that same building. There I saw people who had great families that were successful in life. This was a totally new picture for me. In my neighborhood, there was not this kind of joy.

I started seeking God, and I started asking the questions. My friend encouraged me not to worry about the questions, but just to find God. I started seeking and while I was at a conference was asked, "Who wants to go 100% for God?" I gave up all my plans and went to Bible school in Berlin.

I went on to raise my family, and pursued my job as a butcher. Later on, I started a small business selling sports goods and God opened up my mind for international trade. Within two years, the business had grown tremendously to the point where I couldn't handle it. The blessing from God became slavery, and I was becoming a workaholic. I feared picking up the phone early in the morning because I knew I would not get out of the office until it was dark, and I was totally tired.

Being a workaholic, I lost my family. The market got weak and the business went down. God pointed out very clear, "You give up." I said, "God I trust You, and I want to give up." I lost tons of friends. I was totally burned out.

God visited me with His presence, and over four weeks, God spoke to me about the original calling He had on my life. The presence was so intense and for the first time in my life, I really experienced comfort. God brought me back to the very first moment my father rejected me, and healed my heart deeply.

"God I trust You, and I want to give up."

I moved to the United States as a missionary and asked God, "What is my mission?" His Spirit was drawing us toward a convention center, and it was the first time I had seen things like this in the States. What I saw there has really brought my heart on track. What I want to keep in my heart is how God created me, trained me, and formed my heart.

OUR VISION FROM GOD: Men who are spiritually dead are standing shoulder to shoulder across the globe; hear and receive the message of hope, and are spiritually resurrected from the dead, filled with God's Holy Spirit, with radiant faces and hands lifted toward heaven praising God.
